

ACOL*

CLIENT APPLICATION (FOR NS JUDGMENT CLIENT ACCOUNT)

This Client Application, when completed in duplicate, signed by the Client and accepted by Unisys Canada Inc. (“Unisys”), shall constitute an agreement between the Client and the Province of Nova Scotia for electronic access to the Nova Scotia Personal Property Registry (“ACOL Service”), in accordance with the Financial Agreement included herein and the appended Terms and Conditions and Product Description(s).

Business Name (if applicable) _____
If the requested Client Account is for personal use, you may leave this value blank.

Personal Name (required) _____
Your name. This will be the user name assigned with the Client Account.

Address (required) _____
Civic Address

City Province /Territory Postal Code

Phone (required) _____ Fax (optional) _____

Email address (required) _____

Purpose of request (check all that apply):

- Personal I am requesting access in order to perform registrations on behalf of another person or business.
 Business

Select a Client Verification Word (VWord) to be used to authenticate your identity when in phone contact with the ACOL Service provider in regard to your account (max. 20 characters): _____.

Personal Property Registry Database(s) Selected

Nova Scotia (NS)

User Access

When your Client Account is created, you will be granted one User ID to perform the following functions in the ACOL Service.

PPR Search and Register	PPR Administration	Client Account Administration
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Search in any ACOL PPRS jurisdiction. • Register the following registration types in the Nova Scotia PPR Database: * <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Creditors' Relief Act Notice of Judgment ○ Creditors' Relief Act Notice of Claim ○ Matrimonial Property Act Notice of Order 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • List, View, and Update PPR Client Information • List and View Secured Party Number Information 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Retrieve Reports • Change Password • User Information • Account Status • Account Statement

* You will not have access to renew, amend, discharge or re-register a registration that you did not create.

* ACOL and Atlantic Canada On-Line are registered official marks of the Provinces of New Brunswick, Newfoundland and Labrador, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island.

PPR Administrative User and PPR Client Information

When your Client Account is created, you will be identified as the PPR Administrative User and Secured Party Administrator for the Client Account. See the PPR Product Description for definition of these roles.

Clarification to PPR Product Description section 6.2: To facilitate your access to perform registrations in the selected PPR Database, Unisys will create your PPR Client Information record using the name, address and contact information that you provide in this Client Application. Use View PPR Client Information and Update PPR Client Information to verify and maintain this important identifying information.

ACOL
Financial Agreement

Upon acceptance of the Client Application for NS Judgment Client Account access, Client agrees to the establishment by Unisys of a non-interest bearing account for the selected Database(s) (“Client Account”). The initial deposit amount for the Client Account (“Initial Deposit”) will be $0.00 and the minimum balance amount for the Client Account will be $0.00.

Client agrees to pay the stipulated fee for access to the Personal Property Registry by credit card at the time when a search or registration function is performed.

When you provide personal information and payment information in order to perform a search or registration in the Personal Property Registry, you give your consent to the applicable government department and its agent(s) to collect, use and disclose this information in order to complete your search or registration request. This information will not be collected, used or disclosed by the applicable government department or its agent(s) for any other purpose without your consent.

The Client acknowledges that the authorization provided by this Financial Agreement will remain in full force and effect until ten (10) days following the receipt by Unisys of advance written notice of its revocation. This authorization may be canceled at any time upon delivery of written notice as described above.

The Client agrees not to request or arrange the refund of a payment made under this Financial Agreement for any reason whatsoever with the exception of either: (i) an incorrect payment resulting from a failed use of the ACOL Service; (ii) a payment amount different from the stipulated fee for access to the Personal Property Registry; or, (iii) a payment made more than ten (10) days following receipt of written notification by Unisys of revocation of this Financial Agreement.

The Client shall notify Unisys of any incorrect charge resulting from any failed use of the ACOL Service within thirty days of such charge being incurred.

Sign where indicated and forward in duplicate to:

Unisys Canada Inc.
350-7105 Chebucto Road
Halifax, NS B3L 4W8
Email ACOLBusinessOffice@Unisys.com
Phone 1-855-324-2265

The information provided by the Client in these Agreements may be used by Unisys and the Applicable Province(s)/ Territory(ies) solely for the purpose(s) for which it was provided. Unisys and the Applicable Province(s)/ Territory(ies) shall not otherwise disclose the information to any other party or use it for any other purpose(s).

Authorized Client Signature

Accepted on behalf of the Province of Nova Scotia

Date

Date